How to Respond to THE mysterious MICROS "Change to BARXX?" prompt

When you first log in to your Micros register, if you are presented with the following prompt:

How should you respond? There are two ways to respond, depending on how you answer one question:

AM I STANDING AT THE REGISTER SHOWN IN THE DIALOG BOX?

If you ARE standing at the register shown: Click the "YES" button.

If you ARE NOT standing at the displayed register: Click the "NO" button.

What happens if I press the wrong button?

Don't panic! You've so far done nothing wrong!

DO NOT RING ANYTHING UP!

Get a Manager and have him reassign your Register ID to the correct register.

That's it! It's simple to solve and correct.

BUT, if you blindly proceed without addressing the issue in a timely fashion:

- You create a lot of work for someone else
- Your inventory could be off
- You might be assigned a shortage on your bank bag
- Any tips closed out on credit cards might be assigned to the bartender working the register you just told Micros you were working at.
